Performance Ceilings & Walls For The Interior Design Industry

Constantly Innovative, CLIPSO Stuns in Fashion Debut!

CLIPSO® is a proud sponsor of Team DiMella Shaffer at the IIDA of New England's annual design competition. The theme of this year's event was Coutourism2016, marrying Couture and Tourism in extravagant fashion designs created by architects and interior designers trained to design buildings, not runway couture. To make it more challenging, the designers had to use unconventional building materials as their fabrics. We think the folks at DiMella Shaffer did an outstanding job with the theme Atlantis. They created a nautical masterpiece using CLIPSO coverings and CLIPSO acoustic batting, among other non-conventional materials. A special thanks to CLIPSO sales rep, Hamilton Associates, for making this one-of-a-kind opportunity possible!
